

Volunteer Center of Lubbock

Team: Program Delivery/Service

Full-time position - 40 hours per week

The Volunteer Center of Lubbock inspires a more engaged community by helping people find their purpose and act on it.

Our ideal candidate thrives on being part of a team and has a passion for service and people – someone who has excelled at customer service, gets excited about talking to and connecting people of all ages ranging from one-on-one to large groups, and is jazzed about multi-tasking.

In essence, the perfect candidate:

1. Already knows – and loves – the Volunteer Center. Or, they might have a lifelong passion for helping people act on their purpose whether exhibited in work, volunteer, or personal experience.
2. Is absolutely excellent with relationships – passionate about listening to people, understanding their needs, and guiding them to the right fit in the context of our mission. Loves sharing stories. Values receiving feedback.
3. Is fantastic at managing details enabling strong organizational impact including collecting data.
4. Provides excellent customer care.
5. Loves sales and promoting events – can listen and create value with partners. Connect dots on how our programming can impact their mission. Able to tailor our services to their needs for maximum benefit. Source of inspiration, motivation and encouragement. Able to make connections and use resources to engage people for a variety of opportunities.
6. Passionate about achieving impact goals.
7. Has a degree - Masters preferred.

A few other qualities we're looking for include:

- A great organizer – creates simple systems to facilitate excellent follow-through.
- Collaborative, and skilled at working with people from different departments, and different backgrounds. Gets the power of what can be done by a unified team. Loves getting and giving feedback.
- A strong influencer who is not afraid to speak up.
- Entrepreneurial, bringing new and different ideas to the table, and then taking initiative to make them happen.
- A great communicator – both in writing and in person in a variety of settings. Asks great questions. Has a way of driving people to action-on the phone and in person- that doesn't feel at all like nagging.
- Sees doing a variety of jobs as an opportunity, not a burden.

If you are someone who has these qualities, we can train you to do everything else.

This role is primarily focused on service engagement through volunteering and leadership development. Includes helping volunteers find their best fit, helping 100+ agencies provide great opportunities, managing the online volunteer portal, presenting to classes, clubs, and organizations on behalf of the Volunteer Center, connecting 60+ businesses with opportunities, providing interactive training, and collaborating with team members on events and other tasks. Experience in making presentations and conducting training is a must. Will work both in office and throughout community.

For more information about the Volunteer Center's impact, click the items below

Volunteer Center Impact

| "What is the Volunteer Center of Lubbock?"

If this description calls out to you, send a cover letter that explains why, along with a resume and salary expectations, to sbass@volunteerlubbock.org. No phone calls please.